

Trinity Lutheran Church-Lansford

March 4, 2010

Derrick Tossett opened the meeting with Pastor Heather Brown with a scripture from Psalm 27 and prayer.

The Secretary's report was approved as read with no corrections.

The Financial report was presented with a balance of $1,462.71 A brief clarification was ask for regarding the Lenten donations. One half of the amount to the Food Banks and the other half to the Ministerial Association.

There will be a Agape tree at the Sunday church meeting with names on from the community. People will be asked to take a name and contact that person either by telephone or cards.

There are 10 people from Glenburn Trinity Church and Lansford Trinity Church participating in the Prayer Partners group.

Pastor Heather asked for a March 21 vacation and Pastor Kari Williamson will be the guest speaker.

There will also be a free will offering for the Lutheran Campus Ministry program. She also will share her wish list for the Ministry.

Pastor Mark Narum from the Synod assembly has asked each congregation to participate in an ELCA World Hunger Program. The children are asked to fill jars with coins from the Sunday School.

Pastor Heather will start first communion classes for the 5th grade students. This will be in Glenburn.

Denise Tofflemire has asked to transfer her membership to the Lansford Trinity Church. A motion by Bob Kosel and seconded by Ladora Gregory to have her accepted as a member. Motion carried. Welcome Denise.

The next soup kitchen is March 12, 2010 at the First Lutheran Church. Please check with Julie and Mark Adams for further information.

Cade Undlin, son of Matt and Jenny Undlin will be baptized March 14.

Julie Adams, Darlene Wenstad, and Bob Helming are the Thrivent representatives.

A letter from Tammy Crater, the Rural Plunge student thanking the Stevenson's and the members of the church for the hospitality shown to her.

Pastor Heather shared an article from the newspaper regarding a group who want to organize a new Lutheran Church. No discussions.

No information on the web site at this time, but 3x5 cards will be passed out at church for the members to list their email address.

A newsletter is being prepared to mail to all Box Holders in Lansford and Glenburn to inform the community of the programs the churches will be planning for. It was suggested that the mailing be done twice a year. More information to follow.

The meeting was closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Ladora Gregory, Secretary.