

Should our congregation host a Camp Metigoshe Day Camp?

Are you looking to energize your summer vacation Bible school program? Camp Metigoshe can help!

Don't worry about trying to find volunteer teachers and developing a Bible study program—we'll do that for you!

Each summer, 40+ college-age camp staff are trained to lead safe, faith-filled, and unforgettable Day Camp experiences. Camp Metigoshe counselors bring energy and skills to lead Bible study, teach fun camp songs, organize adventurous games, and a whole lot more.

Day Camp dates fill quickly, so don't delay your registration.

What Camp Metigoshe Provides

- Energetic Christian young adults specially-trained to lead Bible studies, worship, music, arts & crafts, and games
- A well-developed Bible study that is fun and faith-filled
- Supplies for unique crafts and engaging Bible studies
- Plans for an end-of-the-week worship led by the campers
- Day Camp promotional material including posters, bulletin inserts, and a press release.

What Your Congregation Provides

- As many campers as your congregation can find! The more the merrier at Day Camp. Campers should be entering grades 1-6.
- The church facility for your Day Camp
- Basic arts & crafts supplies (We will send a letter with materials needed.)
- Arrangements for noon meals for counselors and camper snacks
- Room & board arrangements for Day Camp staff

Day Camp Times

Day Camp runs from 9 am to 3 pm all days except Friday, 9 am to noon. Some congregations choose to include a Thursday night lock-in experience for their older campers. Many congregations integrate a Day Camp celebration including a pot luck and worship led by the campers.

Day Camp Dates Available:

- *May 31—June 3 (Tuesday through Friday) Reduced price!
- June 13-17 (Monday through Friday)
- June 20-24 (Monday through Friday)

Day Camp Cost

The cost of day camp, regardless of the number of days a child attends, is $40 per youth, $30 for the second sibling, and $30 for the third sibling. The maximum cost for a family is $100 for the week.

The minimum total cost for a congregation for one week of day camp is $600. (For example, if 10 youth attend at $40/youth, a congregation is still responsible for the minimum $600.)

* Early Session Special — May 31 to June 3.

The cost of this Tuesday to Friday day camp, regardless of the number of days a child attends, is $35 per youth, $25 for the second sibling, and $25 for the third sibling. The maximum cost for a family is $85 for the week.

The minimum total cost for a congregation for this shorter week of day camp is $525. (For example, if 10 youth attend at $35/youth, a congregation is still responsible for the minimum $525.)

Transportation

We will continue to cover the cost of mileage for travel to congregations within our constituency, but if the congregation is outside our constituency, we will charge 50 cents per mile per car to transport the staff.

It's Awesome!*

We Hope We Can Join You!

We realize it can be difficult for smaller congregations to have large numbers of campers, but to be careful stewards, we cannot run a day camp for less than the minimum cost of $600. (Or $525 for the shorter week.) Congregations are encouraged to combine with neighboring congregations or to make Day Camp a community-wide event to successfully increase their numbers.

Return your "Day Camp Request Form" today or email kdeberti@srt.com with your date preferences.
