

Pastor Heather opened the meeting with a devotion from John 15 and prayers.

Present at the meeting were Dustin Undlin, Bob Kosel, Jan Hartle, Greg Morlock, Ladora Gregory, and Pastor Heather Brown.

After a short discussion on number of subscriptions for The Lutheran Magazine and an increase to Verla for the extra amount of work she does for the church, Jan Hartle moved to accept the Secretary's Report and Treasurer's Report. Motion carried.

Balance in the checkbook is $3,739.85 with all bills paid.

The council board will meet with the United Methodist Church ad board to discuss paying future bills involving the building. More information to follow.

Evangelism: Dustin will make a temporary sign to be placed over the sign at the Lutheran Church that will refer that the services are being held at the United Methodist Church.

Pastor Heather has been contacted about putting information at the Air Force Base. Public Services will be contacted for additional information

Stewardship: Bishop Mark Narum has asked the children to collect quarters for the Central African Synod. These will be put into M&M containers. 24 containers will be ordered, with each container holding 52 quarters.

Worship: The list for Ushers and Readers are available thru June. Check the website for further information or Jan Hartle.

Ash Wednesday is March 9 with David & Kelley Anderson guest singers. A free will offering will be collected to go to Sheppard Canyon Retreat. Soup and Sandwiches will be served. This will be a Glenburn. Check the bulletin for further information. A possible daytime service will be available for those who are unable to attend the evening service. The candle lighters will be replaced.

Property: Northwest Music has installed the wiring and set up the system, replaced a fan in one of the amplifiers and the microphones for the digital music system. Thanks to Bob Kosel for overseeing this project.

Education:

Sunday School at 10am has two classes with reports that the children are not only having fun, but learning a lot about Jesus and the Bible

No decision was made for Vacation Bible School at this time

Youth

Andrea Savelkoul and Rhonda Undlin will attend the Metigoshe Annual Meeting
