

Trinity Lutheran Church

September 1, 2011

Meeting called to order by Greg Morlock. Devotion and Prayers given by Pastor Heather Brown.

The secretary's report was read and treasurer's report was presented with all bills paid. Motion made by Dustin Undlin and seconded by Bob Kosel to accept the reports. Motion carried.

The report from the ELCA mission builders was given and discussed for some remodeling on the UMC building. A brief discussion followed and it was decided to not pursue the matter further due to the amounts listed and the request for church member labor participation. For further information contact the church board members.

Curtis Talley presented his ideas and suggestions about moving the flowers from the Lutheran Church to the Methodist Church. He will contact the members of the UMC.

Bob Kosel will be working on repairing and/or replacing the broken area in the sidewalk to the building.

Pastor Heather is still working on the final legal details with Jim Maxson on sharing the building. More information to come.

The closing ceremony for Trinity Lutheran Church building will be October 1st with Jan Zook as guest speaker. All are welcome to attend. Bars and coffee will be served at the UMC church.
